Leather Care

Leather is the longest-lasting and most durable upholstery material you can get, perfect for any room of your home or office. It will withstand the rigors of daily life, including children and pets, and still look great. Although the initial investment in quality leather may be more than fabric upholstery, leather is one of the best values in the long run. With proper care, quality leather can be expected to last a lifetime.

- A monthly wipe with a warm, gently damp cloth will prevent your body oils and dust from creating a buildup. As easy as it sounds, this maintenance is key to prolonging the life of your leather furniture.
- Do not use saddle soap oils, abrasive cleaners, soaps, furniture polish, varnish, or ammonia-based products. The leather has already been permanently preserved in the tanning process and needs no maintenance other than the simple cleaning recommended.
- in the case of deep cleaning or conditioning, you should use leather-specific cleaners and conditioners. These products are specially designed for this purpose and will not affect the structure of the leather. Recommended 2 to 3 times per year.
